

GeoSpectives

Geospectives Seminar Series

Geospectives is the interdisciplinary lecture series sponsored and hosted by the Department of Geography. It is held in Burnside Hall, Room 426, on select Mondays from 11:00-12:30 (refreshments served at 10:45) unless otherwise stated. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Series organizer: Natalie Oswin and Jeanine Rhemtulla

Winter 2011 Schedule:

January 17

'Ethnography at the Border: Small-scale Chinese Traders in the East Coast of the Thai-Malaysian Borderlands'

Kazue Takamura

Centre for East Asian Studies, McGill University

January 31

'The demise and recovery of the Colorado River Delta, Mexico: lessons for watershed management and wetland restoration'

Osvel Hinojosa-Huerta

Director of the Water and Wetlands Program, Pronatura Noroeste, Mexico

Note time: 12:00-1:30

February 14

Toward a regional understanding of land use impacts on eco-hydrological interannual dynamics

Marc Linderman

Department of Geography, University of Iowa

February 28

'Urban Sprawl and the Quantification of Spatial Dispersion'

Federico Martellozzo

Department of Geography, McGill University

Mar 17 (Thursday)

'Drivers of Globalization: From the Developmental State to the Rise of Lead Firms in the Asian Newly Industrialized Economies'

Henry Wai-chung Yeung

Department of Geography, National University of Singapore
Note time: 1:00-2:30

March 21

'The Scales of Justice: International Law and Local Realities'

Amy Ross

Department of Geography, University of Georgia